Author Event

Tues., May 7 6pm

School is tough enough when you know how to write. Imagine being one of the 33% of students who simply can't write letters and numbers. This inability or difficulty is called dysgraphia. For over a decade, Cheri Dotterer has observed children with these challenges in school systems across the world. She witnessed their struggle with not only writing, but also the challenging behaviors due to their feelings of defeat from the frustration. She discovered a powerful process that reduces anxiety and frustration and builds confidence and competence.

Rayne and Delilah's Midnite Matinee by Jeff Zentner

Every Friday night, best friends Josie and Delia have been the hosts of a campy paranormal show, Midnite Matinee, on their local cable station. But does that mean Josie wants to chase her dream television career or go to a university? Horror movies are the only way Delia can connect to her dad, who left her and the rest of her family years ago. If she keeps pursuing Midnite Matinee, maybe he'll see the show and come back to her. The uncertainty of their futures are suddenly even more frightening than anything on their television show.

Find it in the library at J/TEEN/ZEN.

Enchantée by Gita Trelease

It's the middle of the French revolution, and the Paris streets are filled with beggars, thieves, soldiers, and magicians. Camille Durbonne, recently orphaned, relies on the most ordinary of magic in order to provide for her weak sister. But when her magic fails, Camille transforms herself into a Baroness and pursues a dangerous life at the Palace of Versailles where she tries her luck at gambling at cards. The longer she stays, the more entrenched in secrets she becomes, and the game she plays turns deadly.

Find it in the library at J/TEEN/TRE.

Shout: a Poetry Memoir by Laurie Halse Anderson

The bestselling author of Speak, a twenty-year-old award-winning novel about a survivor of sexual assault, is back with a poetic memoir. Enraged by how little has changed in twenty years, Anderson shares hauntingly personal stories she's never written about before. This memoir acts as a love letter to everyone who has stood up and said #MeToo and #TimesUp.

Find it in the library at 813.54/AND and CD/813.54/AND.

Superman: Dawnbreaker by Matt de la Peña

The fourth installment in the DC Icons series follows Clark Kent, a man who is faster and stronger than everyone else. But he can't show off his powers; drawing attention to himself is dangerous. But it's difficult to stay hidden when Clark discovers dark secrets that have been lurking in the shadows of Smallville. Clark and his best friend, Lana Lang, team up in order to find the truth.

Find it in the library at J/TEEN/DEL.

"Aquaman"

"Game of Thrones" star Jason Momoa is Arthur Curry, aka Aquaman, the heir to the underwater kingdom of Atlantis. Human-born, Arthur bridges the gap between land and sea and must prevent a war between them. This proves to be even more difficult than expected as his half-brother, Orm, is the one who is trying to unite the seven underwater kingdoms in order to attack the surface world.

Find it in the library at DVD/AQU and BLU/AQU.

A vibrant, colorful illustration of a space scene. In the foreground, a yellow and red rocket ship is flying towards the right. Inside the rocket, two children are visible; one is reading a book. Above the rocket, two astronauts in orange and red suits are floating in space, also holding books. A blue alien planet with a white dome is visible in the background. The title 'A UNIVERSE OF STORIES' is written in large, bold, yellow letters across the middle of the illustration. At the bottom, the text 'Coming Soon! Summer Learning Program 2019! lebanon.lclibs.org' is displayed in white and red.
