Lebanon Valley College

GANNETT FOUNDATION

CONGREGATION BETH ISRAEL

Richmond, Virginia 1811. The theater is packed with more than six hundred holiday revelers. In the third-floor boxes sits newly widowed Sally Henry Campbell. One floor away, in the “colored gallery,” Cecily Patterson is grateful for a four-hour reprieve from a life that has recently gone from bad to worse. Backstage, Jack Gibson hopes that, if he can impress the theater’s managers, he’ll be offered a permanent job. On the other side of town, blacksmith Gilbert Hunt dreams of one day being able to bring his wife to the theater. When the theater goes up in flames in the middle of the performance, Sally, Cecily, Jack, and Gilbert make a series of split-second decisions that will not only affect their own lives but those of countless others. As news of the disaster spreads across the United States, the paths of these four people will become forever intertwined.
